Please respond to the following question using the space provided.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated was founded on January 16, 1920, on the campus of Howard University by five collegiate women. In 1920, these five collegiate women left a legacy in establishing an organization based on the principles of Scholarship, Service, Sisterhood, and Finer Womanhood.

Finer Womanhood is defined as “distinguishing characteristics of a woman, one superior in kind, quality, or appearance; marked by or affecting elegance or refinement.”

A Finer Woman is someone who epitomizes the true ideals of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated. All see her as a leader, and she sets the example of a true woman of excellence.

Write a short essay describing areas in your life where you demonstrated leadership and overcame obstacles in your school, social, or family life. What is the most difficult challenge you have ever faced? How did you handle it?
